

Design level 2: the user has to acquire the app then provide the app with some personal information to assist in finding the best path up. The user then provides app with a boulder problem and the best path is provided

